“ I knew Roy through his wife Cindy, Cindy and I worked together for many years, and through those years I got to know Roy. When I think of Roy I think of the beautiful relationship that he had with his family. He always had a smile, a good word to say and always a compliment. I know of no other couple that carried themselves as Roy and Cindy did, always together, as " your my best friend and I love you" was always said by Cindy as she finished a phone conversation with him. And their beautiful sons reflect his love and devotion in themselves. I pray for the family, each and every one, and know that God will have his arms around you all and carry you thru this valley, and the climb that lays ahead. I love you all dearly.
