“ Roy was a true friend for more than 70 years. The ultimate teammate of youth with a heart simply too big. Always a generous soul, a great listener to those around him. Just knowing that he was alive gave many of us great thoughts and memories. He was a personal pick of so many people. It was special getting a hug from him at a recent Siloam Springs Class of 1954 reunion meeting.

“ On behalf of the Family of Carl Hill, we would like to extend our deepest sympathies to Roy's family. Roy and Carl were life long friends and loved each other like brothers. Roy was so good to Daddy when he was sick. I can assure you we would have all been at the service had we known about it.
