“ *To Ruby's family -
I didn't hear about Ruby until the day after her service. Sue Burden told me.
I talked with Ruby a couple of times when my mother (Opal Shields) passed away. Ruby's mother is Opal's "Aunt Jane". Ruby brought Aunt Jane to visit my mother, Opal, just before she passed in January of this year.
I remember lots of times mother brought my sister and me to Jane's to visit, and we saw Ruby and Betty through the years. So sorry to hear of your loss.
Just know that I am thinking of you, and tell Aunt Jane I sent my best wishes to her and hope she is doing ok.
Love to you all, Faye.*

“ Buzz:
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your wife. Ruby was a wonderful wife and mother, and I know she'll be badly missed. We both know she is home now with the Lord. I'm sure there are no words that I can say that will bring you comfort at this time, but God's word in His Book will bring you peace during this time. I will be praying for you that God will give you strength and comfort to be able to carry on in this life.

“ My tribute is to my beloved friend Ruby, my memory of her is almost as long as my life. Tim and I met in a hayfield when we were 4 years old and became what is now known as lifetime friends. I may have had as many holidays with the Chaney's as I have the Clary's, I know that Ruby and I have sat and shared many a cup of coffee, sharing our life's stories and I have never felt more love or admiration from another person. Ruby I will miss you terribly, but will always have a smile on my face with every thought of you. You always seemed to get a laugh everytime I bought a new home or came by with a new car. Well your the one with a new home, a new sense of peace, and I will see you again. You will be missed, lovingly, your biggest fan, Justin.
