“ Ruby loved each and every one of her family. She would say something like, I guess I shouldn't go on about them like that...but if I don't brag on them, who will? She was extremely proud of her grandson for losing 65 pounds! She would call and make sure whoever came to see her, would arrive safely home. She had such a sense of humour. She would have me crying, I was laughing so hard. I will miss her stories, her kiss on the cheek, her "I love you, sweetheart. You are so sweet" (With a pat on my cheek).... Yes, I will even miss the numerous trips to heat up her soup or coffee because it wasn't hot (scalding) enough. I could tell you so many stories, but for sake of time...I'll just close with..... She is missed. :) I enjoyed getting to know you, Bernice, Carrie, Colleen, the great-grandkids and well just all of you. You are such a sweet family. A real tribute to our sweet Ms. Ruby. ~Christal

“ It's hard for me to pick just one story. There's the time you eat to many dried prunes. There's the time you thought we were not going to make it while I was pushing you in the wheel chair going down a hill. Also there's the time you stayed with us and brought over three yr old coke. So many many good times. I loved you the moment I met you and said just call me Granny. You were the glue that held everyone and everything together. You will forever be in my heart and I was so blessed to have known you...love always, Angie
