“ I am so sorry i was in Tenn. when your mother/grandmother died and therefore was unable to attend the funeral services. one of her last words to me the last time i saw her was "you know you're still singing at my funeral." so i feel realy bad that i couldn't keep my promise to her.

I want all your family to know how much i loved her and will miss her. I missed her when she moved. I am looking forward to that great resurrection morning when all the saints will rise to meet Jesus in the air to live forever with Him. I love you Mary, Eva, and Ruth.

Your friend, Dona

“ Mary and Family, may you feel the love of Jesus through family and friends during this time of loss.

"For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." Romans 8:38-39

Our love and prayers go out to you this day. Darin and Elaine

“ Dearest Mary and Family, Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. Although we didn't know Ruth very well, we know the loss you are feeling. It certainly won't be very long until we are reunited with our loved ones who died in Jesus. What a great resurrection day that will be! May God keep you in the palm of His hand until then. We love you. Love and prayers, Jim and Gerry Craddock

“ Dear Mary, Ruth and family,

I was so sadden to hear about your mother's (grandmother's) death. She made it to 100! What an accomplishment. You all are in my prayers. It is most difficult to lose your mother, but I want you to know that God will give you comfort and peace in the midst of the storm. He is our great Comforter and has promised to never leave nor forsake us. I pray the you will also be comforted knowing Ruth is sleeping waiting for her Lord to return. What a day that will be when her Jesus she shall see. Hold on to His hand Mary and don't let go. When the days are hard He will be there for you. Rest in His love and care.

*With much Love and prayer,
Donna*
