“ I was sorry to learn this sad news today. My sympathy goes out to her family. Sandi did have a wonderful smile, she smiled with her eyes, also! There was a warmth about her. We were cheerleaders and I have many great memories of our routines together. In sympathy, at this difficult time. Stacy

“ Steve and Kids,

Sandi was a wonderful person. We will all miss her so much.

I know what a difficult task it is to care for a loved one and to lose them after a long struggle. You did a wonderful thing to love and care for her. Try to remember the good times and that she is at peace now.

Take care of yourself, your children and grandchildren. Stay close

Love

“ Steve,

It seems so inadequate at a time like this to say "I'm sorry". So let me tell you that I love you instead.

Chris and Jamie,

my heart hurts for you. I have lost a parent and know that hollow aching pain that gets left behind. A mom and dad each fill specific and very needed roles in our lives no matter how old or young we are. Take what she taught you about being a good parent and share it with your little ones. I love you. Praying for your family.

“ Sandi was more than a sister to me, she was a great friend. Her family was the most important thing to her. She was loved so much, more than I can express in just words. I know that she will be waiting for us to join her again when the good Lord calls us. I miss you Sandi, with all my love. Your brother, Rex.
