“ Jim and Jamie - I'm so sorry for your loss. Sandy was a great wife, mother and a true friend. We were blessed to have our memories together with each other. Remembering all the fun times shared by our bank group and our special fish fries. Oh, how we all laughed and loved each other. We love you and Jamie and will miss Sandy. Love, Mike and Janette

“ Sandy made every person she met feel like a close friend. She would always ask how you were doing and really wanted to hear about you and what was going on in your life. She will be missed terribly, but her sweet spirit lives on in her daughter Jamie. She leaves a legacy of love that is evident by how much she will be missed. Proverbs tells us "the memory of the righteous will be a blessing" and we will be blessed as we remember Sandy.

“ Jim and Jamie,
I was shocked and saddened to learn of Sandy's passing. I remember her smiling face and always happy demeanor. We sent our only daughters off to their first year of college as roommates. Please know you are both in my thoughts and prayers not only today but in the days to come.

“ Jim - so many years of working together, you feel like you are part of a wonderful extended family. I only met Sandy a few times, but it was so obvious by many casual conversations with you over the years that she was very precious to both you and Jamie. So sad that you are going through this difficult time and I am sending prayers your way for comfort in this time of great sorrow in the loss of your sweet Sandy.

“ Sandra was a friend of mine from 1970. I lost track after I moved to Kansas City, Mo., but never forgot her kindness and generosity of spirit.

The many tributes that I read are a testimony to the fact she never changed, but that she grew in her unselfishness and her compassion.

May she be re-united with her parents in a Heaven where there is no pain, but joy and peace with our Saviour.

My prayers go out to her family.

“ Dear Jim and Jamie,
I'm so sorry about the loss of your sweet Sandy. It was such a shock to me, when I read it in the paper! I would have been at the funeral!! I want you to know that you will be in my prayers, for the Lord to help you get thru this and give you peace! The picture you choice for Sandy's obituary was perfect. She always had a beautiful smile on her face!! God be with you!
Love Cheryl Hill
Ike sends his condolences.
