

Scott Trapp

October 16, 1962 - May 13, 2025

Scott Anthony Trapp (62), a loving husband, father, son, brother, and friend, passed away on May 13th, 2025, in Siloam Springs, Arkansas.

Scott was born on October 16th, 1962, to Judy Ruf in East St. Louis, Illinois. He was raised in North Texas and ultimately graduated from Kansas State University. Scott's driving focus and the source of his peace and joy were his wife of 26 years, Cheryl, and their son, Jake.

Scott was a man who valued an excellent work ethic, most recently serving as the General Manager of Darling Ingredients, Bakery Feeds Division in Watts, Oklahoma. He was proud throughout his career of his team members who demonstrated dedication to quality production and safety in the workplace. As an avid Kansas State Wildcat fan and enjoyer of all sports and grilling, Scott loved sharing sports stories, stats, and conversation with others.

Scott is survived by his wife, Cheryl Kay Highfill Trapp; son, Jacob Daniel Thomas Trapp; mother, Judy Ruf

Dupler; brother, Bryan (Misti) Trapp; sister, Amy (Tom) Brown; stepsister, Stacy Dupler; stepbrother,

Michael Dupler; nieces and nephews, Addie (Johnny), Tyler, Colton, Carson,

Christopher (Johanna), Ashleigh (Daniel), Robbie Rae, and Rebekah (Joshua); mother-in-law, Beverly Highfill; sister-in-law, Dorene Highfill-Holmes; along with many great-nieces and great-nephews.
Scott is preceded in death by his grandfather, Daniel Ruf; grandmother, Atheis Ruf; stepfather, Glenn Dupler; and father-in-law, Tom Highfill.
Scott was a Christian and a good-humored, very loving man. His absence leaves a void in our hearts. To commemorate his life and the memories we cherish, a service will be held at Community Christian Fellowship Church, 525 S. Lincoln Street, Siloam Springs, AR 72761, on Thursday, June 5th, 2025, at 2:00 p.m. We welcome all who knew Scott to join us in celebrating the life of a man who was loved deeply and will be missed
