“ I just found about Nicki this past weekend when I went home to Siloam to visit my family. Nicki was always such a wonderful friend to me and I will greatly miss her. She had such an amazing spirit and a positive outlook on life. I always admired her for her drive and ambitions. My prayers go out to her family and friends.

“ My name is Lindsay Bradshaw. Nicki knew me as Lindsay Amos, before I married one of her Gentry classmates, T.J. Bradshaw. I knew Nicki many years ago in elementary school in Siloam Springs. We were friends and I always admired her. Something funny that I always remember when I think of her is that she really wanted to be a psychiatrist back then, so when my "boyfriend" and I or my friends and I would get into fights, she always made us sit down and talk about our feelings. I thought it was silly at the time, but she really did help us out! I also worked with her a few years ago at IGA Supercenter here in Siloam Springs. She was so much fun to work with. She was always so funny and so positive. I don't think I ever really saw her in a bad mood and now I realize she had every reason to be, but chose not to. The main thing I remember when I think of Nicki was her amazing intelligence. She was always so gifted and I don't think there was anything that she couldn't have done. I always thought she was one of those special people who would go on to do awesome things with their lives, and it saddens me deeply that she didn't get the opportunity to do so. We may not have been close in the last few years, but I still cared very much for her as a person and I am so sorry for you and your family. You are all in my prayers. God bless!

“ Dear Dr. Moore:

I wish to express to you my deepeth sympathy during this time in your life. I tell everyone I meet that I would not be graduating from the counseling program at ENMU if it had not been for your inspiration. I remember when I lost my uncle and I called you from Florida to let you know. I can always remember the kind words you said to me. I appreciate you so much. Please feel free to call me if you want. My God bless you and your family.

“ Nicki was always fun to be around. I had class with her during her senior year. It was a good time to get in heated debates with her in creative writing over our different views. My thoughts and prayers are with you in this sad time. AND to NICKI "GOD SPEED"

“ Craig, Dena, Keith, Nicholas,

You are in our thoughts and prayers during this time of sorrow. We take comfort in knowing that this is only a "see you later" and not goodbye. While it is sad that Nicki will not be here with us this Christmas I know that she will be having quite a reunion with Grandpa, all the other family, and the Lord Almighty himself. In my human understanding I can't see how this event is right or fair; but with the eye of faith in God, I have to accept that there is some purpose for this. Remember Romans 8:28 and take comfort in Romans 8:38. The Lord has you and your family firmly in his plans and thoughts even as I write these words. God bless

“ I will always remember Nicki as being happy, smiling, and having fun. In her short life she brought so much joy and laughter to our family. She was loved so much by her Grandma Goodlett. Nicki fought her illness with such courage and strength even to the very end, she will always be an inspiration to everyone touched by her life. May we all be comforted with the words from Revelation 21:4 "And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes: there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away"

“ Craig and family,
It is with a heavy heart that we offer our condolences and prayers to you. It is hard to understand why a young woman with so much potential and life ahead of her is not allowed to go on. God's plan is not our plan and we give Nicki to His glory and His kingdom. With pride, Nicki, my daughter Sena Noelle, and I shared our Grandmother Goodlett's name. And in humble adoration, we continue to carry that name to honor those who proceed us. We will be with you in prayer and spirit in the next days. God bless!
