“ Euphama

I was sorry to hear about Sharon passing away. I haven't seen you all in years but have thought of you.

Sharon was a sweet lady as I am sure her family is.

I remember mother letting me spend the night. We would have a great time and then at breakfast I would drink all the orange juice. You were gracious and said there is always more.

May God bless you and the family during this time. His love endures forever.

*Love you
Patty*

“ Momma,

Firstly, I love you. I will miss you with all my heart. It was an honor to help take care of you in your last days, and I am so very sorry that you had to suffer with so much pain, and with so many medical problems. I'm so very sorry that you were not able to live at home with us the last few years...you were just too sick and needed to be where they could give you the care you needed. I know you are no longer suffering and are at peace now, and it gives me comfort that we were able to lay you to rest beside your daddy, who you loved so much. I will honor your memory and cherish the time I had with you for the rest of my life. Rest peacefully now momma. I love you.

“ We are so sorry to hear of our friend and SSHS classmate Sharon's passing. We are so sorry for your loss of one of your family too. We are thankful that we will see Sharon again one day, when we go on that last journey also. Like so many others gone on before, Sharon is finally free from pain and suffering.
