“ I went to school with Sharon. Sorry to here about her death. Ec.9:5 say'sThe dead,they are conscious of nothing at all. But Jehovah God has the power,& also the desire to resurrect the dead. Act 24:15. Satan is ruler of this world & the one who cause death. 1John 5: 19 . I hope these scripures give the family some comfort. Sorry again.I haven't see Sharon since high school. “ I am writing to express my condolences for your loss. I'm sure your family is going through a difficult time.

One thing that has helped me to cope with loss, is the Bible's hope of a resurrection. At John 5:28,29, "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."

Knowing that God is not responsible for death, is also comforting. Hebrews 2:14 says, "he (Jesus) will bring to nothing the one having the means to cause death, that is, the Devil."

When Jesus friend Lazarus died, Jesus grieved. "Jesus gave way to tears."(John 11:35). So if Jesus grieved, even though he was about to resurrect his friend, surely he has sympathy for those of us who grieve.

Once again, I'm sorry about your loss. Even though these scriptures will not erase your pain, hopefully they will help you to cope.

*Very Sincerely,
Scott Smith*
