

Sharon Kay Staneart

November 2, 1947 - October 19, 2024

Sharon Kay Staneart, although most of you are probably thinking, "Who the heck is that?" Because, let's be honest, everyone knew her as Menaw. She was born on November 2, 1947, to Silas and Nina Woods and grew up in Siloam Springs, AR.

Menaw finally got some much-needed rest on October 19th, 2024, after many years of stress, high blood pressure, and gray hairs brought on by taking care of her children and many other kids. She dealt with broken noses, fingers, a few (kids) falling from her kitchen window, a snake bite, fist fights, and many visits from the police- the holler never lacked excitement.

She is survived by two brothers, Gary of Watts Oklahoma, and Jerry and wife Linda of Brighton, Illinois; son, Rusty and wife Charla of Westville, OK; daughter, Kacie and husband Jeff of Siloam Springs, AR; grandchildren, Devon, Dustin, Chance, Meagan, Jalen, Trenton, Baylee & Kaden; great-grandchildren, Kayla, Mikey, Jordan, Cash, Keyhanna, Amari, Jocelyn, Londynn, Royce, Emberlynn & Aaliyah; and great-great grandchild, Azari.

Menaw also stepped up as a mother figure to Elizabeth, Duane, Gary Wayne, and Amy, and helped raise Brittany and Kayla, and so many more than can be named.

She was preceded in death by both parents, Nina and Silas Woods; an infant brother; her "mate of a lifetime", as he called her in his letters to her (her husband), Harold Stanearth; and her beloved son, Larry Stanearth.

I don't think one single person could find one negative thing to say about her. She had a love for Elvis, her Smurfs, and her one specific coffee cup, I swear she never washed, and most importantly for her family. Whether you grew up in the holler, spent weekends there, did holidays there, or just stopped by for a visit Menaw would welcome you with open arms and make you a part of the family.

To know her was to love her. As her husband said to her, "It was a love constant and forever". She will be missed by many, and her memories live on in each one of us.

A graveside service will be held on Monday, October 28, 2024, at Weddington Cemetery at 1:00 p.m.
