“ Sweet Sherry, I have such warm memories. When we were kids and you lived with Aunt Margie and Uncle Bob and Jody. You came and visited with mom and dad, Larry and me. We had a lot of fun and a bit of mischief too (but not too much mischief). And I was blessed again to know you later in our lives. Your great strength and warm sweet gentle soul. Your amazing strength of dealing with the cancer that was waging battle in your body, and yet, also your great strength in your love of our Lord. You were such a blessing to all of us who knew you and I am so thankful for the wonderful memories, both of when we were children and those of our later lives. I know you are in God's gracious loving embrace and that helps with the pain those of us left behind have to go through, until the time when we once again are reunited through and in our Lord's love.

“ Sherry, my precious child, how much I miss you. God was so good to me and Dad when He gave you and Rita to us. You filled our home with joy and laughter! Such wonderful memories we made together... Your beautiful smile and sweet nature have brought so many blessings to others. It almost broke me and Dad's heart when you were taken away from us. How we wish you and Rita could have stayed.

No one will ever know the hard times and suffering you experienced. Yet you were strong through it all and gave a precious gift to my dear sister.

I will miss talking to you every morning on the phone. I am so sorry you had to go at such a young age. But I know the Lord knows best and that you are with Him in our eternal home. I will see you again one day, my precious child.

“ Sherry, You knew this would take me a couple of tries to write...I am still unsure what to say but here goes.

First noone could say you were selfish. You gave your daughter to the most wonderful set of parents because you wanted better for her than you could give.

Second you were very patient. You gave me all the time I needed to accept you and why you did what you needed to do.

Third you were very loving. You loved me even when I didn't show you love back and understood that it would take time. I am glad that you never gave up because after time I became to love you in a very different way...

Not as a mother who raised me but first as my brother's mother then as a friend that would fill me in on the past that was so gray, then came the final piece..you were my birth mother which was the most important....

That brought respect, caring, friendship and love for the person who brought me into this world.

Like I have said to you many times there is nothing to forgive and do not regret! I have had a great life because of you and the decision that you made.

May you rest in peace and I look forward to seeing you in heaven:) Please look over us and keep us all safe.

“ SHERRY, YOU ARE MY ANGEL. I WILL MISS YOU SO MUCH. I WILL MISS OUR TALKS WE HAD ON THR PHONE. THE DAY YOU CALLED THE HOPSITAL, WHEN I WAS IN FOR MY HEART, AND I TOLD YOU THAT YOU MADE MY DAY, I WAS SO FULL OF JOY. I COULD FEEL GOD'S LOVE AND POWER. AND EACH TIME WE TALKED ON PHONE AFTER THAT, YOU LIFTED ME UP AND YOU SHARED THE LOVE AND THE POWER OF GOD.

THIS MORNING I WAS OUTSIDE AND I WAS SO FULL OF SORROW, I PRAYED TO GOD I COULD HEAR YOU LAUGHTER AND SEE YOU SMILE AGAIN. I LOOKED UP IN SKY, AND I SAW ONE GREAT BIG BRIGHT STAR. THE SORROW LEFT AND MY HEART WAS FILLED WITH JOY. I COULD HEAR YOUR LAUGHTER AND SEE YOUR SMILE AND SEE YOUR BEAUTIFUL BROWN EYES SPARKLING.

This verse speaks to my heart, and I pray that it will always continue to comfort Terry's heart and all of Sherry's family.

Psalm 116:15-16 (King James Version)

Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of His saints.

O LORD, truly I am thy servant; I am thy servant, and the son of thine handmaid: Thou hast loosed my bonds.

“ You were my aunt but more like my mom that I needed. You and Uncle Terry took a young lost teen mother and showed me that I was not alone. You gave me a place to live. You and Uncle Terry gave me the guidance and advice I needed(even tho it took me many years to apply it)to get through life. No matter how bad I messed up you always stood by me. There will never be anyone like you. God truly took one of his angels back to Heaven to help him get prepared for us. I promise you I will meet up with you when this life is through. "As I walk through the darkest valley I will not be afraid" Psalm 23:4 This is my promise to you. I will love you always

“ How much I will miss my Sis! The laughter and love of our childhood, the beauty queen she was as a teen, and the precious woman of God she became as a mature adult. Sherry, your beautiful smile, laughter, and those sparkling eyes brough so much joy to so many. You loved deeply and you were deeply loved. While our hearts are heavy with our loss, I know heaven just got a whole light more beautiful the day you got there! Rejoice my Sis, you are HOME and we will see you again one day!

1 Corinthians 2:9
