“ I remember the day I met Stella. It was July 2002 at church. She had the sweetest smile and she remembered my name the following Sunday.

I have a recipe she wrote in her shakey writing that I will always treasure.

I know these last few years were very distressing for her and there is comfort in knowing she is at last where she has longed to be, with her Lord.

I count it a privilege to have known her and look forward to seeing her again.

Last night as I was watching the fireworks display I thought of her and thought what a celebration she was having in heaven. Love,
