

Stella Morris

July 9, 1914 - September 5, 2009

Stella May Morris, 95 year-old resident of Rogers, Arkansas, died September 5, 2009 at Mercy Medical Center. Born July 9, 1914 in Siloam Springs, Arkansas, she was the daughter of the Riley Bennett and Julie Buckner Bennett. Stella retired from John Brown University where she worked in housekeeping. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Arthur Morris; her daughter, Ruby Watkins; her son, Leroy Todd; one grandson, Steve Evans; two sisters, Rena Deason and Della Edwards; and six brothers, Elmer Bennett, Willis Bennett, Robert Bennett, Hurcle Bennett, Alex Bennett and an infant brother. Survivors include four grandchildren, Thelma Jean Welch of Siloam Springs, James Watkins of Lowell, Lynn Alexander of Rogers and Vicki Hearne of Gravette; and eight great grandchildren. Funeral services will be 10:00 a.m., Thursday, September 10, 2009 at Wasson Funeral Home, Siloam Springs, Arkansas with Mr. Kirk Hartness officiating. Burial will follow at Bell Cemetery, Adair County, Oklahoma. Visitation will be 6:00 to 8:00 p.m., Wednesday, September 9, 2009 at Wasson Funeral Home, Siloam Springs, Arkansas.

Tribute Wall

DH

“ Lynn & family, I just wanted to let you know that I am thinking of you all and am sorry for your loss, I just wanted to let you know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. I read a saying one day that I really liked I wanted to share it with you. Death leaves a heatache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal.

Love ya,
Debbie

Debbie Hart - September 19, 2012 at 12:05 PM

BD

“ Lynn,
I am so sorry to hear about your loss. My thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time.

Bridget & Tony

Bridget Dominguez - September 19, 2012 at 12:05 PM