“ Dear dad, its been so long since you left. I miss you so much and I think about you every single day. Life is so hard without you, I just wish I could hear your voice and you tell me "It's going to be okay baby girl." You left so fast I didn't get to tell you everything I wanted to tell you. I hope you hear me, I talk to you a lot. I look a lot like you, more and more as I grow. I always remember your smile, its contagious. I got that gift from you! Thank you for that. Thank you for the letter I got after you died, it's like you knew I was going to need that, it's kept me strong over the years, I keep your words close to my heart. I am not as nice as you always told me to be, but I laugh a lot like you told me to. I became someone like you asked and I did something with my life. I found this today, read the comments from your family and friends, its nice to see how loved you were. You were so much to so many people! The Navy put a gravestone for you next to Grandma and Grandpa! No one will ever forget you, I will never stop missing you until I get to be in your arms again. My safe space from the day you named me, to the day you left, may we be together again!

Your one and only baby girl, Kelsey.

“ Dear Sandy,

I am so sorry for your loss. Reading through the tributes brought back so many great memories! Even now, every time I hear the song "Smoke on the Water", I think of Steve playing that on the guitar. You are in my thoughts.

*Your friend always,
Cindy*

“ Someday
By A H Shadow Rai? AKA Lisa P A Brown

*The final time we rest our heads,
Can happen anywhere, aside from a bed
Whether tis painful, pain will subside,
Or in a split second, no one ever dies
The last breath on earth, is the first one above,
Tis the most refreshing air, of Gods greatest love,
The chariots we ride, to get around,
Easy to tell apart, while we?re on the ground,
Chariots rest but, souls they soar,
It?s meant to be, that?s what we?re here for,
That magnificent dream, like no ones ever seen,
Except the ones who?ve crossed over, now gleaming and clean,
Free from the earth,
Until its new birth,
Looking down and leading the way
His time, he?s coming,
The great family reunion
We will be together someday.*

(This is for you Stacie)

“ Dear Steve. I'm so glad we hooked up again and I was able to talk to you a lot before you went to Heaven. I will always remember all the good times we had growing up. Crusing First Street, Racing in your Pontiac LeMans. Playing guitars. Racing on our bicycles. Seeing who could jump the furthest. Buddy we have done everything from throwing snow balls at cars to getting enough courage to pull the leaches off our private parts when we went swimming in that duck pond my Dad told us not to. Im sorry for Stacie, Sandy, Becky and Wade. Now your home with Mom Dad and Rick. My race car is almoast ready to go. Your memory will be on the front wing of my Sprint car. It seems once again we will go fast together my brother. I Love you Steve and I miss talking to you so much. I will always remember you and all of the good times. Love Moe.

“ I knew Steve when he was running around with my brother (in his single days)!. Steve and my brother (Mark Hoffman) decided one day to stay at my apartment one weekend to live it up in the big city (Salt Lake City).

Steve walked out onto my balcony to look at the scenery. He turned around and promptly ran into my screen door, knocking the screen right out of it's tracks.

We all laughed so hard we cried.

Just thought I'd share that---Steve was polite and funny. He will surely be missed by everyone he knew.

Our thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends at this time.

“ Dear Sandy and Becky,
I am so sorry for your loss.
Steve was always special to me. Without him I would not have met the rest your family. Your family was always an extention of my own family. There are so many memories and most of them make me laugh. I hope you will be able to remember the happier times and share a smile. You are in my prayers, Love, Gina
