

Sue Jane Walls

July 18, 1943 - July 19, 2024

Sue Jane Walls (Magness), beloved wife, mother, grandmother and cherished friend to many, passed away peacefully on July 19, 2024, at the age of 81. Sue was born in Rock Springs, Wyoming on July 18, 1943, to the late Freda Mae Watkins and JR Magness. She was raised by her Grandmother Nan Lewis. Sue married the love of her life, Doyle Walls on September 29, 1961, in Denver City, Texas. Together they built a beautiful family, blessed with 3 sons and one daughter. Sue taught Head Start for several years. After retiring she enjoyed scrapbooking, volunteering in the church, and reading. Sue's greatest joy was spending time with her family, supporting her children and grandchildren in everything they did, attending every game, recital, and milestone with unwavering pride and love. She was known far and wide for infamous banana pudding, Sue was celebrated as the best cook by all who were privileged to taste her food. Sue's deep love for God was evident in everything she did. A pillar of her church community, she served as a spiritual mother to many. Her faith and compassion guided countless individuals, offering support and guidance with her gentle wisdom and open heart. Her home was a sanctuary of warmth and welcome, always open to anyone in need of a meal, a kind word, or a comforting embrace. Sue was truly one of the best people you could ever meet, embodying kindness, generosity, and an unyielding love for those around her. Her legacy of love and warmth will be carried on by her family, friends, and all who were fortunate enough to know her. Sue will be deeply missed but forever remembered in the hearts of those she touched. Her memory will live on in the cherished traditions she started and the countless lives she enriched. She is preceded in death by one, grandson Brian Jay Walls; brother, Rick Magness; her grandmother Nan Lewis.

Her survivors include her husband, Doyle Walls of the home; son, Jerry Don Walls and Wife, Patty of Nixa Missouri; son, Gary Ray Walls of Wilburton Oklahoma; son, Johnny Lee Walls and Wife, Mikka of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma; daughter, Brenda Sue Walls and Husband, David of Siloam Springs, Arkansas; 15 Grandchildren; 24 Great-grandchildren; 1 Great-great grandchild; two brothers, Johnny and Brock Magness, both of Phoenix Arizona; A host of loving Nieces, Nephews along with many friends blessed by her loving church family.

“ What an inspirational and loving woman Sue was. She ALWAYS had a word of encouragement and a smile. Indeed she was a fantastic cook and I will never forget church potlucks, we always wanted to know what Sue brought in order to make sure we got some before it was gone. Sue thank you for being such a loving person to our family.

“ Sue was one of a kind. She had the biggest heart and the most welcoming home. When I was a teenager, we would go to her home with her granddaughter, Miranda, and she would make us sandwiches, chips, and give us all kinds of drinks. She was always so encouraging and loving in every way. She will be so deeply missed and never forgotten. The kindness she showed me during that time was needed so much and we were all blessed to have known her. My heart and condolences goes to the family and I am thinking of all of you during this time.
