“ My mom was unbelievably intelligent. She knew art, art history, Latin, and literature.

My mother loved crystal, depression glass, memorabilia, collectables, art, and every other type of treasure. She certainly knew how to keep her beautiful treasures polished and openly displayed--- all at the same!! She was a true artist.

My mom had a fun, quick wit.

My mom treasured her long time friends: Pat Sheffield, Wilene Ford, Lorraine McBride, Pat Cox and many others.

The person who made my mom's life most special in her last years (after my wonderful dad passed away) was Mayo Selby. Thank you, sweet Mayo, for taking care of mom, for giving her fun, and for being her very special friend.

I love you, mom. I always have. I so very much wanted to spend time with you, learn from you, and have fun with you after Dad and Jay passed away.
