“ Mother was a very special woman. She had many untouched talents, and sewing Barbie Doll clothes was her passion. She also crocheted. She was a lifetime loving, caring partner to Dad. They never said an unkind word to one another. She loved children and was a Sunday school teacher for many years. She loved her family and I don't think there was nothing she wouldn't do for them. Her grandchildren and greats were her pride and joy. She was faithful to her faith and rarely missed church. She read her Bible and was very knowledgeable. I often heard her praying in her room at various times of the day for people and things only God knew about. I will greatly miss my momma...she was my bestest friend and I could always count on her to help me thru my trials. I believe she was welcomed into heaven with a great homecoming party. She is finally home and whole and happy visiting with her many friends and loved ones she helped to make heaven their home. Earth lost a precious lady, angel, friend, wife, grandmother, momma! Love you mom so so much!
