“ Sylvia never seemed to be without a smile on her face. It is difficult to learn about the loss of a friend, even though we haven't seen each other in 50 years. Tom's and my sympathy to the family.

“ I will always remember the smiling face I see in the picture. Despite all sorts of problems and "situations", there was usually a silly laughter coming out of the apartment at Village Place. Those were some bad, depressing days. But thinking about Sylvia makes me smile. My thoughts are with you, Matt, Sherry, Dwight, and Teresa during these strange days without your Mom here on earth. But praise God for the next world!
