“ I lost touch with Tammy over the years but have fond memories growing up with her in a very close knit family. She impressed me as being a very intelligent person who got along well with everyone. It's always sad to lose a member of your family but she is at peace now.

“ I remember Tammy mostly as a little girl, laughing and smiling and having fun. Then she grew into a sweet loving teenager who would have been loved by any parent. She was a good friend to my daughter (her aunt). Then she went on to get her education, marry and start a family. Clint and Jason, I feel your loss. She found a new home and now is at peace. Time will lessen your sorrow.

“ Clint and Jason, my thoughts and prayers are with you every second of the day. I cannot tell you this will be easy - but I do know that it will get better with the help of your friends and family. We all love you both and care for each of you.

I only got to see Tammy a few times, but what I remember most is her sweet innocent smile. Whenever I saw her, she always smiled. I hope her smile remains a part of your memory.

If you ever need anything, I am here for you. Leona

“ How great to know the destiny of those who have eternal life in Jesus Christ. How blessed to know Tammy's bliss and joy at being home with the Lord (Php 1:21, 23).
