“ So sad to hear this. We were friends when we were young about 12 or so. She was a wonderful person. I'm positive she's in a greater place now. And I'll see her again one day. Praying for comfort for her family.

“ There are so many memories with my precious cousin. One that stands out to me was when Deborah and I would spend the weekend with Cheryl and Diane. We played outside most of the day. They had a garage or shop we would go in and Diane would make us play CHURCH.. She would pound on oh box pulpit and yell at us(she learned how to do that watching my Dad preach every week lol).. She wouldnt let us leave the garage unless when went to our made up alter to repent our sins..Lol.. I love her so much and already miss her dearly.
