

Terry Douglas Gates

April 25, 1963 - November 15, 2012

Terry Douglas Gates, 49, of Rockwall, Texas, died November 15, 2012. Born April 25, 1963 in Indianapolis, Indiana, he was the beloved son of Larry Douglas Gates and Sharon Jean Brown Gates. He was formerly of Siloam Springs, where he graduated from high school in 1979. He had worked at Day Spring Cards in Siloam Springs. He graduated from John Brown University with honors in accounting. He achieved his Certified Public Accounting certificate on June 26, 1990. He was a computer consultant and programmer. He had also worked at EDS for ten years and he had worked the last ten to fifteen years at Computer Science Corporation and was a principal of Computer Science Corporation. On January 2, 2010, he married Martha Treece, who had been his true love for twenty years and will forever be his soul mate.

Survivors include his wife Martha Gates of Rockwall, Texas; parents, Larry and Sharon Gates of Grove, Oklahoma; one sister, Cynthia Ann Mitchell and husband Larry of Glendora, California; daughter Tiffany Heyland and husband Bradley of Rockwall, Texas; and his precious granddaughter, Savannah Heyland.

He was truly loved and cherished by his family and friends and will be deeply missed. He loved telling stories about his childhood and thought his mother and father hung the moon. He enjoyed life to the fullest and he enjoyed traveling with Martha and riding his motorcycle. He was an extremely good, very smart and decent man and he is now with His beloved God Almighty in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Funeral services will be 2:00 p.m., Tuesday, November 20, 2012, at Wasson Memorial Chapel, Siloam Springs, Arkansas, with Pastor James Fuller officiating.
