“ Mr. Tommy was our fix-it man when Mrs. Judy worked at the Manna Center. He always had a smile. The Manna Center Family mourns with you and lifts each of you up in a covering of prayer. We love you.....

“ Bro. Tom was the kindest, gentle soul, he had such a quiet sense of humor. When I was on time for Sunday School, which isn't very often, he would look at me and then look at his watch in disbelief. I'll treasure my memories of him. Thank you Ms Judy, Cindy and Terry for sharing him with us. I'm praying for peace and comfort for you all and most definitely, Heaven is sweeter now. Love you all.

“ Tommy Martin was a “Salt of the Earth” kind of person. Lonnie and I are still in shock that he is gone. We are praying for you all and honestly can’t imagine a world without Tommy in it. He was one of a kind and we loved his sense of humor and dedication to God and his family. We will see him again someday.❤️
