“ Dear Tracey,
Hey! I am sorry this is the way I am finally getting ahold of you. I have never lost one of parents, but I have lost people very close to me. At a time like this we all seem lost for words and worry about that. I came to the conclusion that only you know what you are feeling. I don't know exactly what to say except I am here for you Tracey. You have been there for me. I may not know what to say, but I will listen. Don't be afraid to call me. Take care and stay strong. I love you and I am praying for you and your family.

“ Dear Morgan Family,
I was very sorry to read of your loss. I know it's hard to be comforted at a time like this. I just wanted to share two comforting scriptures from the Bible that really helped me when I lost my Grandfather. They are Revelation 21:3,4 which speaks of a time when death will be no more & John 5:28,29 that reassures us that those who die remain in God's memory. I truly hope you will find comfort in these verses.
