“ Tom was a very interesting individual as everyone knows. Sort of gruff on the exterior, but, pretty soft-hearted on the inside particularly towards those he cared about. We like to think we were two of those people. He could be hardheaded at times, but, to us, that was one of his more enduring qualities. He was a dedicated walker at the mall and had lots of friends he visited with every day. Carol was a coworker at Gates and they were pretty tight. Tom will be missed. I hope those of you in his family remember him fondly. Remember the good times!
