“ Charlene, I didn't hear about Tom's death till the funeral was over. I'm so sad for your loss. Tom was a Wonderful Guy to work around at Franklin. He was always a gentleman. We had many good years there as friends. I still have some little figures he carved me. I'll always cherish them. My Prayers are with you all. God Bless

“ Dear Charlene and family,

There are never words to lessen your pain but I pray that you will be comforted knowing others are praying for you and your family. You all have so much tragedy this year and just know and remember that Jesus will never leave you nor forsake you. He is there to walk through the valley with you.

*With love and prayers,
Donna Cook*
