“ Larry, Louise, and all the family. Travis was a very special young man. He was such a joy to have at school, always smiling and trying to sneek up on you and saying I GOT YOU! He would always know if we had the school busses in line or not. He will be truly missed by all.

“ My heart breaks for the Ellis family. I did not know Travis personally but I do know that everytime I saw him he had a smile that would brighten a room and a spirit that made me smile!!
Our world has lost a sweet, gentle soul and Heaven has gained a beautiful angel.
You are all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ To Larry Louise, Angie. Becky, Mike and families,
Words can not express the sorrow of loosing a loved one, i will miss seeing Travis smiling face and hearing him call me chicken and grabbing me by the arm and saying i got you first and then me saying i got you second and second is better than first. and Travis would say no it's not. and in this case it's not he is getting to see and smile for the angels and the good Lord first, and i know that one day we will see him again and he is in mo pain. I pray that God's love and your good memories help you all throught this most difficult time. Much love to you all and if there is anything that i can so please do not hesitate to ask.

“ Larry, Louise, and family,

Travis was a good kid. His smile would light up a room and he's lighting up Heaven right now with it. God has called another angel to watch over us. I am blessed to know him. You are in my thoughts and prayers. ~Ant

“ Larry and Louise, and brothers and sisters. Our heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. I know there are not enough words that can be said at this time. Travis was a wonderful person that we truly were blessed to know. Christmas Day at service, was a wonderful day for me (Ann) I got to spend time with him in the Nursery and he just amazed me and Adison (2yr old grandbaby), she just could not figure out how Travis could read her book from across the room, it was so cute. Adison said, "Grammy he is so smart" how did he know my book? He couldn't see it. I just laughed and so did Travis. It was great! He is singing hymns and reading and getting the Angels now. God has him in his arms and Travis has the biggest smile I am sure. He was always smiling and that will always be a picture in our minds. We love you all and may God be with all of you now and forever. Love, Ann, Tracy, Tashia and Taylor, And grandbabies! We love you all!

“ To the entire family of Travis Ellis.

Travis was such joy to be around. I have not seen a person that was loved as much as he was. My heart goes out to all of you. I only wish that there were words I could say to you all to ease the pain. I know that is not possible, so just keep in mind that I love you all very much and I will do anything you need me to do.
