Troy Callaway Price died at Washington Regional Hospital in Fayetteville, AR on April 29, 2018 at the age of 76. Troy was survived by his sister, Karen Loving and husband Pat of, Sand Springs, OK; sons Troy Kevin Price and wife Lisa of Rose, OK; Daniel Wayne Price and wife Jerrie of Decatur, AR; Grandchildren Pamela Marie Price, Kevin Dwayne Price, Robert Dean Price, Eli Allen Adair, Kademon Callaway Price and Kannah Elizabeth Price. Troy was born February 16, 1942 to Byron and Myrtle Price in Haskell, OK and married Dorothy Roberta Loffer on August 31, 1962.

Troy was an active and dedicated member of The Ridge Chapel where he attended regularly. Troy's life was marked by hard work and a loving generous heart. He loved working outside and working with wood, but more than anything he was passionate about his family, especially his grandchildren. Everything revolved around spending time with family whether it was his weekly trips for breakfast or just sitting and drinking coffee. He had a way of stealing the hearts of all those he came in contact with, whether it was the waitresses who always remembered his sugar free jelly and tobasco sauce or the nurses who cared for him in the doctor's office. He was beloved by all and he will be greatly missed.

His memorial service is scheduled for Monday May 7, 2018 at 2 pm at Sager Creek Community Church in Siloam Spring, AR. All are invited to attend and celebrate Troy's life.

A reception will be held following the service.
