“ *Brenda and Keith,
I heard about your mom over the phone from a friend. I couldn't believe it -- that we were going through the loss at the same time. I thought about the times both our moms visited each other and how we played together when we were little. I have fond memories of Verma. I always thought we had such pretty mothers. You are in our thoughts and prayers and have been all week. Fondly,
Marsha and Ken*

“ Brenda, Your Mom looked like she wanted to sit up and smile at everyone at the service. I would like to tell you again that your Mom and the lady she worked with at the nursing home brought joy and comfort to me during otherwise dismal days. I would go through their hall way to visit my mom just so I could see their smiles and have some happy memories. Mother was put in a room in their hallway for her final 8 days of life. I waited each day for their shift to start because they treated me like I was part of their family. I will never forget the emotional support your mom gave me during the toughest time of my life. She was a lady that shared her joy and love of the Lord with everyone she encountered.

“ Brenda and Keith:

We have been praying and will continue to pray for you and your family during these days following your mom's homegoing. What a beautiful lady she was! Brenda, it's clear where you got your beautiful smile, your laugh, and your positive outlook on life! From the pictures it's evident that your mom loved life and loved being with her family. We know that separation is painful and you miss her a lot. But we also know from experience how very faithful and strong and loving our Heavenly Father is to meet our every need through difficult days. We pray for you to have a deep sense of Christ's presence as He comforts you and carries you through the coming days.

*Love,
Mel and Jan*
