“ Our hearts are so very saddened for this precious family. There are no words adequate to express the depth of sorrow over Violet's passing. In life there are two great things: to be loved and to love. Violet was so loved and treasured and she knew how to love back on you. She was truly a light to our world. I am reminded of the song we sang as children: "This little light of mine, I'm going to let it shine. This little light of mine, I'm going to let it shine. This little light of mine, I'm going to let it shine...let it shine...let it shine...let it shine". Violet let her own little light shine to all those who knew and loved her; and it was a bright light of LOVE. She let it shine till Jesus comes. And she now shines on in the eternal arms of Jesus!

“ You don't know me, but I was there that night, sitting in traffic with my daughter and grand-daughter, praying. I didn't know who you were or anyone else involved but I was praying. Praying for you, praying for the driver of every emergency vehicle that passed, the helicopter pilots, everyone. I'm sorry to hear of your passing and am still praying for your family and the others involved. May God send the peace that passes all understanding to you all.

“ I was only around Violet once or twice. I didn't have a personal relationship with her. Yet the loss of this larger than life little girl has totally broken my heart. I have come to know Violet through the stories I hear about her from her Mimi. My Dear friend and I share a common bond, the love of our granddaughters. I know how special this little light was without having to be around her. I know what she meant and how she will be missed through the love her Mimi has repeatedly expressed to me. You may be gone for now Violet, but you will live on through all those who knew you. Rest now baby.
