“ Vonda, Ashley, and Collin all have special memories in my heart as the kids passed through 3rd grade. Ashley and Collin, I am so happy to know you both are helping to make the world better for the people in your lives. Your Mom was one of the kindest, caring, sweet lady I ever knew. My heart is sad that her grandchildren will not know the precious lady I knew from being your teacher. I noticed in a photo on fb that Collin had posted she did not lose the beautiful smile she had when you both were young. Know that Jesus has restored her and when all of you are reunited in Heaven-you will have a healed Mom. I am so sorry your family had to experience this suffering.

“ Vonda and Tim have been our dear friends forever it seems. We shared babysitting and our kids grew up together! She was way to young to leave us...Jesus come soon!! ❤️❤️

“ Vonda welcomed me warmly into the KLRC family. She was such a sweet spirit and loving colleague, who became a dear friend. We walked, we laughed ... we talked, she was a bright spot in my day. She is dearly missed and wil never be forgotten. Prayers for the family, she loved you all so much! IN Him, Holly Hook
