

Walter Truluck

September 10, 1946 - November 8, 2008

Walter Randall Truluck, 62, of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, died November 8, 2008, at Siloam Springs Memorial Hospital. Born September 10, 1946, in Augusta, Georgia, he was the son of Coy Truluck and June Hufford Truluck. He was an Army Veteran of the Vietnam War and received the Vietnam Service Medal with two Bronze Stars. Walter was a serviceman for Pacific Gas and Electric. He was preceded in death by his parents. Survivors include one daughter, Sandra Truluck of Blue Lake, California; one grandson, Randall Truluck of Blue Lake, California; two brothers, Lee Truluck of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, and Robert Truluck of Arizona; and one sister, Pamela Ebitson of California. No services are planned at this time.

Tribute Wall

DS

“ I worked with Walt at PG&E for many years. He was a great guy to work with, always easy going and he had a great sense of humor. I remember when I first got divorced, Walt took me under his wing and showed me the dating ropes. We used to go out to a nightclubs together; although he always complained that I was cramping his style... Haha! Like either one of us had any "style"! He was a good guy, the world is a little bit worse for his passing.

---

David Siudzinski - September 19, 2012 at 01:07 PM

SL

“ My Mother, Eva Barnett, lived next door to Walter in Pleasant Springs. Although 30 years separated them in age, it was apparent they had mutual respect for each other, and she considered him her friend. We always enjoyed our visits with Walter, and we are grateful for those times. He always had a smile and kind greeting for everyone! May God grant you peace in His Time.

---

Steve and Janice Low - September 19, 2012 at 01:07 PM

SB

“ I really enjoyed talking with Walter. I'm sorry for your loss of a very good man.

---

Sharon Bell - September 19, 2012 at 01:07 PM

GA

“ We're so sorry for your loss.

---

Greg Walters DDS and Associates - September 19, 2012 at 01:07 PM