

Wanda Jo Morgan

July 14, 1933 - December 15, 2018

Wanda Jo Morgan, 85 year old resident of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, died on December 15, 2018 at Circle of Life in Springdale, Arkansas. Wanda was born on July 14, 1933 in Anadarko, Oklahoma to Jefferson Muse and Lois Parker Muse. She married Gerald Wayne Morgan in July of 1952 in Whittier, California. Later, Wanda and Gerald moved from California to Galena, Kansas where they lived for fifteen years. They moved from Kansas to Siloam Springs in 2005.

Wanda loved her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, and faithfully studied His Word. She was a member of First Baptist Church in Siloam Springs and a faithful member of the Cross Church Ladies Bible Study.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Gerald Morgan; and daughter, Sandra Morgan.

She is survived by two sisters, Jeanette Miller of Newport Beach, California, and Myra Welch of Sunnyvale, California; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be 2:00 p.m., Tuesday, December 18, 2018 at Wasson Funeral Home in Siloam Springs, with Pastor Greg Dixon officiating. There will be a private burial at Oak Hill Cemetery following. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Camp Siloam 3600 S. Lincoln Street, Siloam Springs, AR 72761.

God gave me the opportunity to meet Wanda at the Ladies Bible Study. She always had a sweet smile and gladly received hugs. If you were having a really rough day she had a hug and prayer for you. She was a wonderful woman of God. She will be missed greatly for her loving self and all her Biblical knowledge.

“ Ms. Wanda was such a blessing in my life. She was full of wisdom, encouragement and love. I am so thankful that the Lord brought her into my life when I was fresh out of college, in a new place, and had very few friends.
