

Will Wasson

October 22, 1991 - January 1, 2009

William "Will" Gray Wasson, 17, of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, died January 1, 2009 at the home of a friend in Siloam Springs. Born October 22, 1991 in Fayetteville, Arkansas, he was the son of Danny Wasson and Carolyn Appleby Fagan Wasson. He was a lifetime resident of Siloam Springs, and was a junior at Siloam Springs High School. Will enjoyed fishing and being outdoors, hanging out with friends, and playing with his dog Lucy. He was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Siloam Springs. Survivors include his father and step-mother, Danny Wasson and Lyn of Siloam Springs; his mother, Carolyn Wasson of Fayetteville, Arkansas; one sister, Bryn Wasson of Siloam Springs, Arkansas; his step-brother, Collin Stancomb of Cincinnati, Arkansas; paternal grandparents, Bob and Sharon Wasson of Siloam Springs, Arkansas; maternal grandmother and step-grandfather, Virginia (Ebie) Matula and Dick of West Hampton, New York; maternal grandfather, DuVal Fagan of Springdale, Arkansas; paternal step-grandmother, Mary Rosewicz of Cincinnati, Arkansas; paternal aunt, Carla Wasson of Siloam Springs, Arkansas; maternal uncle Mike Fagan of Springdale, Arkansas; maternal aunt, Virginia (Sissy) Smith of Helena, Arkansas; paternal great uncle and aunt, Steven and Paula Allen of Little Rock, Arkansas; and cousins Drew Smith, Nate Smith, Virginia Smith, Caroline Smith all of Helena, Arkansas; and Anna Fagan and Allison Fagan, both of Springdale, Arkansas, and Randall Davidson of Little Rock, Arkansas, and Meggin Warpinski of Little Rock, Arkansas. Pallbearers will be Cory

Jenison, Tyler Littlejohn, Paul Abbey, Jonathan Biswell, Chris Evans, Zack Hudson, Sawyer Evans, and Cody Welch. Honorary pallbearers will be Drew Smith, Nate Smith, and Cory Greenhaw. Funeral services will be 2:00 p.m., Monday, January 5, 2009, at the Cathedral of the Ozarks Chapel at John Brown University, Siloam Springs, Arkansas, with Dr. David Bush and Dr. Randy Rowlan officiating. Burial will follow at Oak Hill Cemetery, Siloam Springs. Visitation will be 3:00 to 6:00 p.m. Sunday, January 4, 2009, at Wasson Funeral Home, Siloam Springs. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Siloam Springs High School Scholarship Fund, Will Wasson Memorial Scholarship Fund, 1500 West Jefferson, Siloam Springs, AR 72761.

“ Danny, Bob and Sharon we are so terribly sorry to hear of your loss. Danny, we didn't know your son personally, but from what Taylor and friends have said he was a wonderful person and a good friend to everyone he knew. Danny we have all been the best of friends for too many years to count and please if there is anything at all you need, hey just a shoulder even, we are here. God only knows how many times I have cried on your shoulder. You have always been there for me and Tracy when we needed you or or Dad or Mom and we are here for you. You are all in our prayers, and Will has met the Maker. You will see him again and he will never leave your heart. We love you and are just a phone call away. God Bless You and all of your family. “ To The Wasson Family,

Please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss. I had the pleasure of meeting Will in the summer of 2006 when I spent a week with Carla. I will always remember his beautiful smile.

May the lyrics by Alicia Ann Scott written for the song "Think On Me", bring you comfort.

THINK ON ME

*When I no more behold thee
Think on me
By all thine eyes have told me
Think on me*

*When hearts are lightest
When eyes are brightest
When griefs are lightest
Think on me*

*In all thine hours of gladness
Think on me
If e'er I soothed thy sadness
Think on me*

*When foes are by thee
When woes are nigh thee
When friends all fly thee
Think on me*

*When thou hast none to cheer thee
Think on me
When no fond heart is near thee
Think on me*

*When lonely sighing
O'er pleasures flying
When hope is dying
Think on me*

I used wassons for his funeral, and you were all so caring and helpful during that terrible time, i just hope people will be as good to your family as you have all been to so many other families throuout the years. I wish i had words to help you, but their are none. Just know your son is always with you, and is waiting for you in perfect peace, you are the ones suffering right now, William will never know pain, or saddness or suffering again. Always remember this life is only temporary and you will all be with your beautifull baby boy again. Please feel free to email me if you just need someone who knows exactly what your going thru to talk with. I will keep your family in my thoughts and prayers (just as you did my family). “ I have not had the privilege of being part of Will's life after he left 3rd grade. However, today, at the service, I felt joy in my heart that the things I loved about Will remained constant throughout his life. In 3rd grade he could make me laugh, make the class laugh, yet always did it in a respectful way. He did not disrupt class; but made it more enjoyable for all. I loved him. He wrote wonderful stories and always had a smile. Even with my faith, I struggle with why God sometimes takes the "good ones". I have dealt with the losses of children I love by thinking that heaven would be very dull if there were no children to bring joy there. Also, God sees the whole picture, while we only see and feel our pain when we lose our loved ones. Today I prayed that God would use Will's life and death to bring other young people to Christ. All of you, mother, father, sister, grandparents, and close friends will be in my prayers as you go through the process of grieving and healing. Will was a great kid and a joy to teach. Thank you for sharing him with me that year.

“ Dear Danny and Wasson Family,

I did not know Will personally. I have been acquainted with the family through the years mostly through attending visitations and services handled by the family business. From an outsider's perspective you are all professional, caring people who meet the needs of those who have had to give up a loved one to death.

I am so sorry for your loss. There are few, if any, words of comfort in the loss of a young person. I do know, in reading the Bible's book of Job, that Jesus is always working out His purposes even when His ways are hidden to human eyes and to human understanding.

I trust and pray that He will give you peace in this difficult time.

“ I stopped in the local gas station this morning, and as I walked in to pay the nice lady (everybody knows everybody in Garfield) she started complaining to me that her sixteen year old daughter came home with a tattoo last night. She went on to say that it was a poor quality tattoo at that. I listened intently till my friend stopped talking. I asked her step outside with me. Once there, I shared my grief at the loss of Will & Marcus, within thirty days. Then, I suggested my friend go home and hug her daughter. She said she would. Certainly not the way you are..no one knows how it feels until it happens to them. As you know this is the second sad 'cousin' death in our family in the past 30-days, and we all have to manage to go on. There are lots of family members 'over there' to greet Will [and Marcus] and wrap them in their arms. All you can do is be strong for each other and yourselves. Feelings of guilt and 'what ifs' just need to be banished from your thoughts forever, no matter how hard. Things happen for a reason, we all know that. "Farther along, we'll know all about it".
....from afar...I do love and miss you all. Feel my hug.

“ *Danny and Family,
Our hearts are very saddened for your loss. I know there are no words to help during this time, but please know that God feels, sees, and understands what we do not. We pray that He will hold you close in His hands and reveal to you just how much you are loved. May He comfort you and give you His peace that passes all understanding.*

“ *Danny, Sharon, Bob, Carla, Carolyn, Bryn:
I just learned Friday morning of this tragedy (I am currently out of town). Harry and I are just stunned and saddened at your incredible loss. Words fail me. I just wanted you to know I am thinking of you and praying for you.*

“ Danny and family as I sit here and try to write something comforting I just have no words. Over the past few weeks I have heard so much, as you know, I too have lost my Cori at such a young age and I truly do know the pain you are feeling at this time, so I will just let you know you are very heavy on my mind and in my prayers. Sincerely, Tammy

“ No words can express the heartfelt sorrow that I feel for you and your family. I am truly sorry to hear about your loss. I remember seeing Will at the football games and remember thinking how beautiful his smile was ~ when he smiled his eyes did as well. I pray that God holds you and your family close and gives you peace and comfort. I also pray that He sends His guardian angels to stay close to you and to wrap you in their wings. May God Bless you.
With much love,
Lisa Jarvis

“ I had the priviledge of meeting Will on a student trip to Australia, New Zealand etc. a couple of years ago and fell in love with that kid. He made me laugh the whole 3 weeks. He was a good, polite kid with a great big smile. I will miss him greatly!! May Jesus be your strength and provider during this unimagivable time. Your faimly will be in my prayers these days ahead.

“ Dear Wasson Family Members- You are in our hearts and prayers during this sad time of loss and grief.

Will was a fun and likeable young man, and he will be missed by all who knew him. Your friends throughout this community are in a state of mourning over the loss of the beloved Will Wasson.

*Sincerely,
David, Lisa, Lauren & Skyler Ray and Hugh Benson*
