

Willa Marie Morris Kennedy

October 6, 1937 - October 3, 2025

Willa Morris Kennedy, née Womack, passed away peacefully on October 3, 2025, at Circle of Life in Springdale, Arkansas, at the age of 87. Born on October 6, 1937, in Yell County, Arkansas, Willa lived a life marked by kindness, dedication, and a deep love for her family and community.

Throughout her life, Willa was known for her gentle spirit and unwavering warmth. She and her husband Ray were well-known in the Gentry community as the operators of the Gentry Food Center for several years. Her commitment to serving others extended into her long tenure as Director of Food Service for the Gentry Public Schools, where she worked tirelessly to ensure students were well cared for. After retiring from the school system, Willa continued to share her talents and entrepreneurial spirit by opening and operating the Tastee Freeze restaurant in Gentry. Her presence in these roles left a lasting impression on countless lives.

Willa's musical gifts were a source of joy to many. A talented pianist and singer, she brought music into every space she entered. Whether playing hymns or singing with friends and family, her music was an expression of her heart—gentle, uplifting, and full of grace.

Her faith was central to her life. Willa attended both Gentry First Baptist Church and Victory Baptist Church. Even when dementia made it difficult for her to attend services independently, she remained committed to worship with the help of her dear friend Bill Mitchell, who lovingly ensured she could continue participating in church activities.

Above all else, Willa cherished her role as a mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She loved her children deeply and found immense joy in spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Her home was always filled with warmth, laughter, music—and above all—love.

Those who knew Willa remember her as someone who never spoke a harsh word. Her sweetness touched everyone around her; she had many friends who treasured her companionship over the years. Her legacy is one of kindness, service, faith, and love—a legacy that will live on through all who had the privilege of knowing her.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Lyman O'Dell Womack and Varina (Hovis) Womack; first husband, Ray Morris; second husband, Ken Kennedy; son, Tim Morris; brothers, Alvis Womack, Joel Womack, David Womack, Danny Womack, and Lyman Womack; and sister, Rosa Williams.

She is survived by her children, Jane Parks and husband Mike of Gentry, AR, Susan Morris of Fayetteville, AR, Tony Morris and wife Regina of Gentry, AR, and Clark Morris and wife Jenni of Colcord, OK; brothers, Kit Womack and wife Peggy of Cummings, GA, and Stephen Womack of Kentucky; sister, Joan Johnson of Dover, AR; grandchildren, Matthew Parks, Jon Parks, Jeff Parks, Joseph Morris, Nick Morris, Andria Morris, Dalton Morris, Austin Morris, Malory White, Clark Morris II, and Addison Morris; as well as 19 great-grandchildren.

May Willa's memory bring comfort to those who mourn her passing and inspiration to those who carry forward the values she embodied so beautifully. “ So sorry to hear about your loss. Ms. Morris & I go WAY back to my high school days! She was the kitchen supervisor & did not put up with the students messing around in her cafeteria. That's how Ms. Morris learned my name! Lol Than I grew up & matured a little and started working for Ms Morris & Clark at Tastee Freez. In fact I've worked for all the Morris men & Miss Susan Morris was a teacher of mine. Good times Ms Janie is the only one I never got to know personally but I do know she's the woman to go to for information when it comes to Gentry. I know Ms Morris is in a better place & we will see her again soon.

“ Willa was an incredible lady. I met her years ago when her son (Tim) coached basketball at Omaha. He had already told me that she deserved to be put on a pedestal. After my first visit with her it became clear why he thought that. Mrs. Willa was the glue that held the Morris family together. She will be missed by many. Rest easy old friend, I truly loved you. ❤️❤️
