

William Cartwright

July 19, 1914 - August 3, 2005

William "Bill" J. Cartwright, 91 year-old resident of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, died August 3, 2005, at Springdale Nursing and Rehab, Springdale, Arkansas. Born July 19, 1914 in Platsburg, New York, he was the son of Charles Wesley Cartwright and Bernadette Langlois Cartwright. He was a Veteran of World War II where served in the merchant marines. Bill was an ironworker and the General Organizer for the International Association of Bridge Structural and Ornamental Iron Workers. He was of the Catholic faith. He was preceded in death by his wife, Juanita, in 1991. Survivors include two sons, David Cartwright of Houston, Texas, and Charley Cartwright of Siloam Springs, Arkansas; three grandchildren, Anna Rose Cartwright, and Cheryl Lynn Cartwright, both of Plantation, Florida, Rebecca Jeanne Cartwright of Orlando, Florida; one great grand child, Taylor Ann Gayton of Plantation, Florida; and one daughter-in-law Lana H. Cartwright of Vernon, Florida. Graveside services will be 10:00 a.m., Saturday, August 6, 2005, at Oak Hill Cemetery, Siloam Springs, Arkansas, with Father Clayton Gould officiating. Arrangements are under the direction of Wasson Funeral Home, Siloam Springs, Arkansas.

Tribute Wall

KH

“ I just wanted the family to know I really enjoyed waiting on Mr Cartwright when he would come by the bank. I then worked at Arkansas State Bank at the Walmart Branch. He was a good man and I thought alot of him. He would bring a smile to my face many times when I needed it.....sooo sorry to hear of his passing....May God Bless You All.....

Kavin and Thursia Harris - September 19, 2012 at 11:33 AM

PC

“ Bill was a special person whose heart was softer than he wanted us to know.

PATSY COLLETTE - September 19, 2012 at 11:33 AM