“ *To William's family:
I was so sorry to hear about William. I don't know your family, but I knew William. He was a very polite, thoughtful young man who will be greatly missed.
I know there is nothing I or anyone else can say to take this pain from you; but hopefully, knowing that others care and are thinking of you and praying for your family will ease that pain a little. Deepest sympathy,
Darla Wilson*

“ To Krista, I'm sorry to hear about your brother's loss. i really did like your brother. When i used to ride your bus i liked to play car crashing. I will miss seeing him and saying hi to him before breakfast. When we would play "car crashing" i would use my best cars and he would still win because he was the best on the bus. i hope you don't feel bad because he was good at Yu Gi Oh and would beat me on that too. i thout he was really cool too. best wishes colby

“ Shirley, Debra, and Family:

There are no good words to say at a time like this. It doesn't make sense, it doesn't seem fair and it certainly doesn't fit the natural order of life. Hold tight to faith in God's wisdom. From the womb He knew Will and had a plan and purpose for his life. Someday He will explain it when you are reunited with Will. We are praying for your comfort and peace and protection through this sad time. I'm so sorry for your loss.
