“ I just saw that Mr. McCoy passed away. He and his wife were my favorite patrons at the library. We used to talk about our Scotties, and both always came in with such joy and kindness. I will never forget them . My condolences to the family. Shelly Govea

“ Martha, I think you know I just lost my mother. So profound for me! And you were there for me when I lost my dad. This season of life is hard. We are the next ones to leave....sounds trite that we'll see them again, but it is such a comfort. Love you.

“ Bill and Marie what a wonderful Godly couple. He will be greatly missed by all. His love of the Lord was evident at all times. He was a great inspiration in the study of the bible. He loved music and came to hear our choir sing. He always had a wonderful smile and a love for life. Celebrating his homegoing. Prayers with the family as the mourn your loss and celebrate your life.
