“ Hey Buddy, thinking of you on your birthday. Always enjoyed our chats and exchanging stock market tips. Don't get back there much any more, but I'll stop by and say hello next time I do. Thanks for the special memories. Uncle Frank

“ Today is March 17, 2007, Randy's birthday. He is in our thoughts even more today because of his special day he shared with St. Patrick. When we learned of Randy's death, his Uncle Frank lamented "Too young, too soon", and I sadly agreed. We shall miss his ready smile and cheerful greeting whenever we visit Siloam Springs and Colcord. He will remain in our memories and thoughts with fondness.

“ We are going to miss you Randy. Visits to Arkansas won't be the same. You were our "big" cousin always leading us into mischief. Why I didn't catch on, I don't know. The memories of our visits to Oklahoma/Arkansas will stay in our hearts forever: memories of the blackberry picking when Randy told us the berries could only pick from the middle of the patch (and I tried to go into the middle of all the thorns as Randy stood on the outside laughing his head off) or when Randy convinced me the saddle couldn't be tight or it would hurt the Shetland pony (the saddle slipped and I was riding upside down and I don't think Randy ever stopped laughing at that one!) I will always remember my older cousin as a fun-loving cousin we looked forward to seeing on our visits back to Oklahoma/Arkansas. Our visits back won't be the same without his humor and grin. My thoughts and prayers go to all of you.

“ I will always remember my cousin Bill "Randy" as a very hospitable fun guy. When I was visiting Siloam Springs as a much younger cousin (around ten years) he always went out of his way to show me around and make me feel welcome. I remember hunting with him out in the chilling cold and meeting so many people around town. I noticed how they all obviously liked and admired him. He was good for laugh and was dedicated to his family. We will miss you Randy.

“ Uncle Randy was always a fun and crazy guy and just this Christmas taught my boys to pull his finger so he could...well, you know. He had such a bold personality that could keep you laughing. I will miss you but I have comfort knowing you are in heaven with my mom. You guys behave up there!

“ Corinne,
We just read in the paper about Bill and we are so sorry. Roy's sisters obituary is in the paper too. This has been a very hard winter on all of us. Please feel free to call us and please keep in touch.

“ Corrine, we are so sorry to hear of Bill's passing. As you know he was a good man and so much fun to be around. Mike worked with him for many years at Franklin Electric and consider him to be a great friend. May God comfort you during this time. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ Corrine and family of Bill,

My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time of loss. I worked with Bill at Franklin Electric. He always had a big smile and something funny to say to me. He was one of the first workers to make me feel welcome when I started working at Franklin in 1978.

“ *To an amazing Uncle,
You were there in difficult times with an answer that surprised but solved. You were there in good times with a hug and a smile that made "great" that much better. Many happy stories of you will be told for years to come, and your picture will forever remain in our hearts.*

Love, your nephew!!

“ We will miss seeing Bill around our NW AR and NE OK area. We looked forward to seeing Bill & all his sellable stuff at the Hillbilly Flea Market when he would set up his trailer there on weekends.

Don especially enjoyed chatting and joking with his favorite "cousin" Bill.

“ Randy was his own person. Randy always had a smile on his face and was usually teasing the girls. Randy continually was thinking of mischief to get into, had a somewhat flared temper at times, but always had a big heart for everyone. Randy will be missed by all that knew and loved him.

Love ya, from your favorite cuz!
